Remembering Barry's Words "Just Take It Day By Day"

This is my favorite picture of Barry. I think he took great pleasure in his work with the Arizona Interscholastic Association – in being a part of the organization that awards these state championship trophies.

By David Kukulski

Do you have a lot of good friends?

Is your family supportive?

How many people in your life remain loyal to you through success and failure?

I consider myself to be a very lucky person. I had two wonderful parents who loved me very much and demonstrated their love on a daily basis. I have the best sister in the world and two great brothers who work by my side every day in our family business.

My wife Pam and I have been married for 35 years. She's the most important person in my life, although neither of us could survive long without our three children and four grandchildren.

I have good relationships with my mother-in-law, my daughters-in-law and so many more in my extended family.

And I have a few close friends outside my family. A year ago, I lost one of those friends, when Barry Sollenberger passed away.

I didn't expect it. I wasn't ready for it. I thought Barry would live for at least 20 more years. In fact, Barry was in such good physical shape that I thought he'd easily outlive me.

We were friends and business partners for over 30 years. We supported each other in a variety of ventures, sometimes working together and other times on our own.

I wasn't very involved in Barry's historical work. He didn't participate much in my out-of-state publishing and souvenir sales efforts. We published and sold numerous university and high school game programs and magazines together.

Since Barry died, I've heard from dozens of friends and acquaintances. They all convey their condolences. I take pride in all of the honors and accolades that have recently come Barry's way. Every so often, I watch a video about Barry that my son Andy produced.

I'm a strong person and rarely do I become depressed. But I must admit this has been a very difficult year for me.

When Barry and I were working on a project that wasn't going very well, I'd get down from time to time. He didn't like that at all and would give me a little pep talk.

"Dave, don't worry about everything all at once. Just take it day by day."

That's what I'm doing right now. Taking it day by day and trying to do justice to Barry's magazine.

“No Way to Replace Barry”

For the last six years of his life, Barry Sollenberger was the media relations director for the Arizona Interscholastic Association. That position was created for him by Dr. Harold Slemmer, the executive director of the AIA.

“We hired Barry to preserve the history of high school sports in Arizona,” says Slemmer. “We also gave him the latitude he needed to adjust his schedule.”

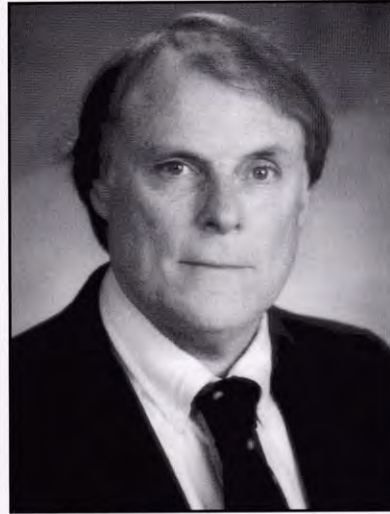

Barry spent countless hours at various libraries, throwing himself into a number of research projects. He also needed the better part of two months each year to sell advertising, gather information, write and distribute his Phoenix Metro Football Magazine.

“This magazine became his baby. It evolved into the official book for the start of the season,” says Slemmer, who was a coach, athletic director and principal before assuming his current position. “The rankings were important and Barry became the expert on the high school kids in the Phoenix Metro area.”

The publication, in many ways, was just an extension of Barry’s love for high school sports. He didn’t want the accomplishments of Arizona’s greatest teams, coaches and athletes to be forgotten. So he did something about it.

“You couldn’t embellish anything with Barry,” recalls Slemmer. “He knew. Accuracy was important. Barry taught us not to embellish when it came to records.”

“Barry was a real positive force for the AIA. He knew the sports reporters from all of the little towns in our state.

“He also enjoyed being at the tournaments. In his time at the AIA, he fielded lots of calls from reporters and so on, looking for information. And, even though he would sometimes complain a little about people ignoring mailings he had done, he took pride in having the answers to those questions.”

When Barry died, Slemmer had to find a new media relations director.

“There was no way to replace Barry. But we brought in a young man (Brian Bolitho) with a passion for high school sports who could be the custodian of our records and contribute to our organization in other ways.

“Sometime during this school year, we hope to create an award in Barry’s honor. We’re looking for high school students particularly interested in sports journalism. Their assignment would be to research a great team from their school, do interviews with former coaches and athletes, locate relevant photos and write a story on that special squad. Whether or not a scholarship will be involved is still to be determined, but, at the very least, we could work with Kukulski Brothers to get stories published in the Phoenix Metro Football Magazine or the AIA State Championship Programs.

“We must work with the great legacy Barry left to the high schools in our state.”

It’s Fate! Rose Bowl Programs Put to Good Use

For 21 years, Barry Sollenberger and I supervised program sales for regular-season Arizona State University football games and the Fiesta Bowl at Sun Devil Stadium.

When ASU won its first Pac-10 title in 1986 and earned a berth in the 1987 Rose Bowl, the publisher of the programs made hundreds of those Rose Bowl Game Programs available to us.

For years, Barry and I sold them at Sun Devil games, through mail order and so on.

Recently, my brothers and I have been going through boxes and boxes of Barry’s things, attempting to donate each item to someone who will handle it properly.

So, when I ran across 125 copies of the Rose Bowl

Program, I called Mark Brand, the media relations director at ASU.

“It’s fate, Dave,” says Brand. “We’re going to honor ASU’s 1986 and 1996 Rose Bowl teams at halftime of our November 11th game against Washington State. We were discussing what we could do for each of those team members. It would be great to give them a copy of the program from that game.”

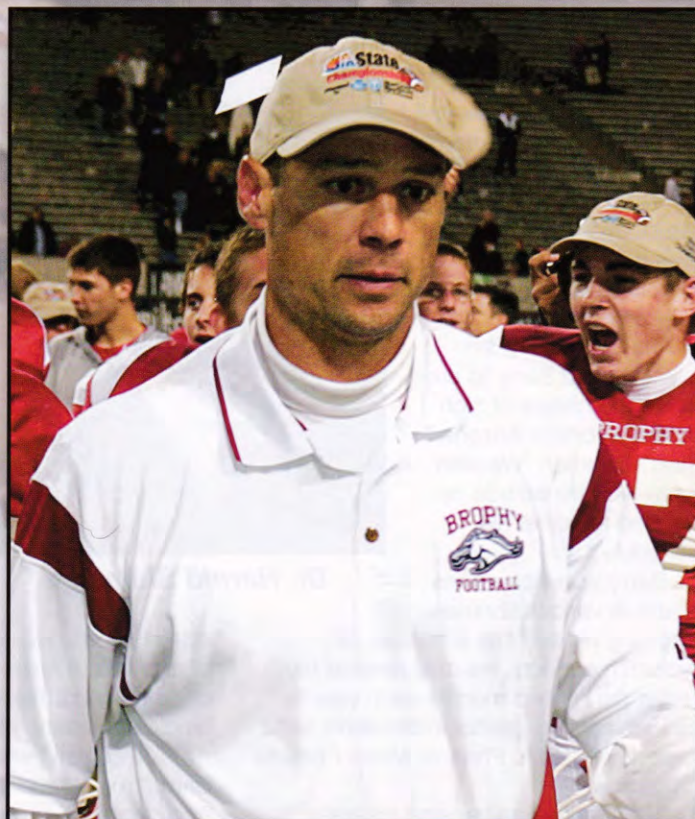

So that’s what’s going to happen. Only Barry would have held on to those books for two decades. And his spirit will be there on that night of celebration for Sun Devil fans.

2006 Sun Devils Aim for the Top

Improvement on Defense a Must!

By David Kukulski

As the 2005 season progressed, ASU's defensive line problems were impossible to hide. The Sun Devils had Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year Dale Robinson and NFL draftee Jamar Williams heading their linebacking corps, but too often the D-Line's shortcomings made the Front Seven look outmanned. On the year, ASU gave up a startling 29.9 points and 468.8 yards per game.

Much was expected of the Sun Devils and they nearly produced, having national powers Louisiana State and USC on the ropes before suffering heartbreaking defeats. Still, it wasn't a bad season. Coach Dirk Koetter guided his Devils to a 7-5 mark and a 45-40 Insight Bowl victory over Rutgers. But that was last year.

Could 2006 become one of the those special years ASU enjoys every so often? After all, the Sun Devils capped their 1986 and 1996 campaigns with trips to the Rose Bowl. We'll see.

Senior Sam Keller and sophomore Rudy Carpenter are back to run ASU's devastating offensive attack.

Junior tight end Zach Miller has grabbed 94 aeriels and hit paydirt 11 times in his first two years at ASU, good enough to garner preseason All-America recognition by several organizations (Paynter Pics).

Keller merely threw for 2,165 yards and 20 touchdowns before going down with a thumb injury midway through the year. So Carpenter came in and threw for another 2,273 yards and 17 scores, leading the nation in passing efficiency in the process. A better quarterback tandem in major college football may not exist.

Graduation claimed all-time leading receiver Derek Hagen (now with the NFL Miami Dolphins), as well as home run threat Matt Miller and steady Moey Mutz. But the next wave of Sun Devil pass catchers is ready to go, led by preseason All-America Zach Miller at tight end. An unbelievable talent, Miller has caught 94 balls for 1,028 yards and 11 TDs in his first two years on campus. But there's more.

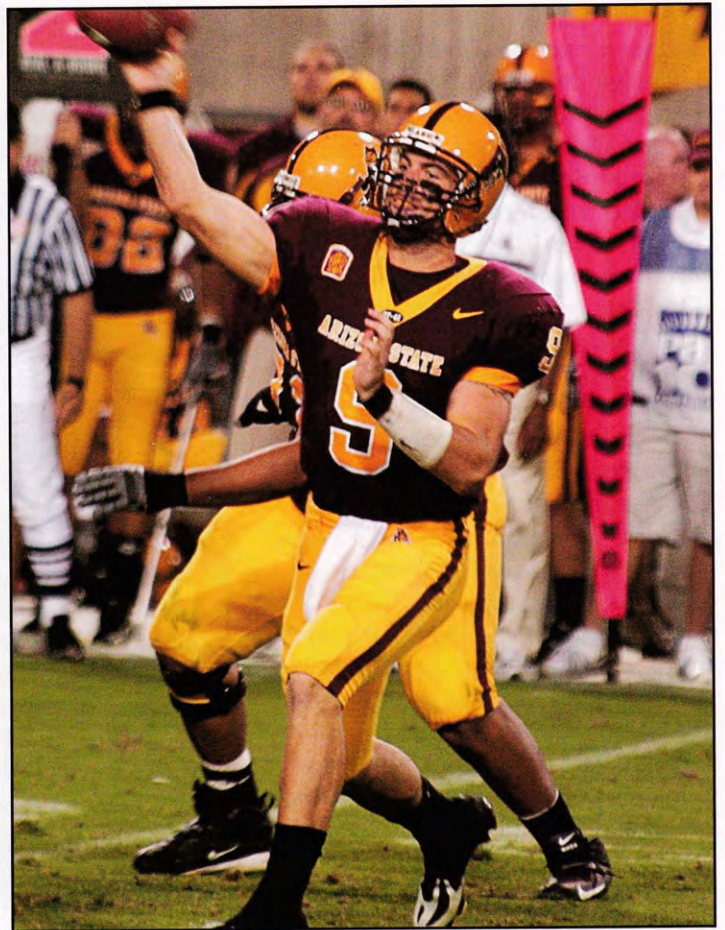

"In my opinion, Zach Miller is one of the best blocking tight ends in the nation," says Koetter.

Brent Miller – Zach's older brother – should start at H-Back, since blocking specialist Lee Burghgraef completed his eligibility. Other Tight End/H-Back types include sophomore transfer Dane Guthrie, sophomore Andrew Pettes and redshirt freshman Jovon Williams.

This could be senior Terry Richardson's breakout year at one of the wideouts, if he can ever stay out of Koetter's doghouse. He didn't participate in spring football for an undisclosed rules violation. But sophomore Mike Jones sure did. He appears to be a rising star – with good size and speed. A former prep quarterback, Jones grabbed seven passes for 142 yards and two six-pointers in the spring game.

Others to watch include seniors Rudy Burgess and Jamaal Lewis (who are switching from running back and tight end, respectively), sophomore Nate Kimbrough, redshirt freshmen Chris McGaha and Brandon Smith and true freshman Kyle Williams. McGaha (Moon Valley) and Williams (Chaparral) won several Arizona State High School Player of the Year awards before joining the Devils.

Together, Rudy Carpenter (12) and Sam Keller (9) passed for a remarkable 4,438 yards and 37 touchdowns last year. When Keller was injured midway through the 2005 campaign, Carpenter assumed control, threw for 2,273 yards and led the nation in passing efficiency. Either is capable of leading the Sun Devils to a big year (Paynter Pics).

Scatback Keegan Herring, a 5-10, 190-pound sophomore, had a terrific season to kick off his ASU career, gaining 870 yards, the most by any freshman in school history. He was very good early, but struggled some in Pac-10 play as running room became a little tighter.

The Sun Devils weren't good in short-yardage situations last fall. But help may have arrived in "big back" Shawn DeWitty (6-2, 216), an highly-touted sophomore from Colorado who runs with power. Junior college transfer Ryan Torain (6-0, 215) could also be a factor.

Most of the line returns. In fact, ASU has a chance to be physical in the trenches, thanks to the presence of junior Brandon Rodd (6-4, 300), senior Andrew Carnahan (6-8, 300), senior Zach Krula (6-7, 339), junior Mike Pollak (6-4, 300), senior Steven Berg (6-5, 309), soph Leo Talavou (6-4, 371), junior Julius Oriekwu (6-7, 311), redshirt freshman Shawn Lauvao (6-3, 314), junior Robert Gustavis (6-4, 312) and redshirt freshman Richard Tuitu'u (6-5, 362).

If ASU is as explosive as ever on offense and can convert on short-yardage opportunities, look out! Protecting leads will become a lot less difficult.

Zach Catanese closes in on another tackle. He's an all-conference candidate from his safety position (Paynter Pics).

Now, to the defense. Koetter and staff have been searching for quality defensive linemen for years. As painful as last year was, it appears the Sun Devils have finally turned the corner in that area. Three highly-regarded transfers – Loren Howard (Northwestern), Michael Marquardt (Brigham Young) and Tranell Morant (Florida) – join holdovers Jordan Hill, Kyle Caldwell and Will Kofe to give A-State a solid foundation on the defensive front.

In addition, sophomore David Smith, redshirt freshman Dexter Davis, sophomore transfer Martin Tevaseu, junior transfer Alex Fa'agai, plus true freshmen Jermaine Williams, Jon Hargis and Zach Niusulu should challenge for playing time. Tevaseu is counted on to be a run stopper deluxe, as soon as he adjusts to major college competition.

With Dale Robinson and Jamar Williams gone, the linebacking corps must be rebuilt. Defensive coordinator Bill Miller is counting on junior Robert James (5-11, 225) to help the cause; he's a returning starter. Soph Chad Lindsey (6-0, 224) has plenty of potential, but ASU needs him to play well now. Senior Beau Manutai (6-1, 262) plays the run very well, but he's prone to injury. Sophomores Adam Vincent and Antone Saulsberry could contribute. A great recruiting class of linebackers and several converted safeties could also see action.

The secondary graduated several players, but should be alright. Senior Zach Catanese and junior Josh Barrett could form a dynamic tandem at safety, if Barrett can overcome injuries and play to his awesome ability. Catanese, an all-conference candidate, participated in 107 tackles in 2005.

At cornerback, the Devils have veterans Keno Walter-White and Chad Green, plus JC newcomers Justin Tryon and Chris Baloney. In other words, there's good talent, but not much experience – and some problems with staying healthy enough to suit up week after week.

Sophomore Jeremy Payton has a bright future and Mike Nixon, a former Arizona Player of the Year, opted for a collegiate football career after several years in professional baseball.

Senior Jesse Ainsworth is a terrific weapon with his booming kickoffs and placekicking prowess (9-11 FGs, 53-53 PATs). He also could grab the punting duties, although junior transfer Jonathan Johnson will be in the picture.

ASU is blessed with a number of outstanding return specialists.

Richardson won All-America and all-conference honors for his work last fall. He had 337 punt return yards, the fifth-most in Sun Devil history and the most since 1971. Richardson averaged 15.3 yards per punt return. He had two returns for scores – an 84-yarder against USC and an 80-yarder versus UofA. The one against the Wildcats keyed ASU's fourth-quarter rally in a 23-20 win.

Richardson was just as good as a kick returner. He raced for 629 yards on the year, third most in school history. His average was 27.3 yards per try.

Burgess is also a gamebreaker as a return specialist, with Kimbrough and McGaha pushing for a chance to show what they can do.

Junior Rudy Burgess could spend time at running back, wide receiver, defensive back and kick returner this year for Arizona State (Paynter Pics).

Positive Signs Everywhere

Does That Mean More Success for the Arizona Cardinals?

The future looks bright for the Arizona Cardinals offense, which will feature two Pro Bowl receivers – Larry Fitzgerald (11) and Anquan Bolden (81) – plus former USC Heisman Trophy Winner Matt Leinart (center) at quarterback. The free agent signing of All-Pro running back Edgerrin James gives the Cards a chance for a more balanced attack. Leinart will back up veteran Kurt Warner to begin the 2006 season (Paynter Pics).

A brand new stadium. A season-ticket sellout.

Three solid drafts in a row. Key free-agent signings. Proactive and successful negotiations to retain top-notch veterans.

A coach with a proven track record entering his third year with the team.

If you're an Arizona Cardinal fan, you have reason to hope. There are so many encouraging signs that 2006 might be that long-awaited year when your team takes a big step forward.

There's Kurt Warner at quarterback. He had some injury problems last year, but threw for over 2,600 yards, completing 64.5% of his passes, the highest completion percentage in club history. The Cardinals also were the top-ranked passing offense in the NFL for the first time ever.

Last year, in only his second year in the league, Larry Fitzgerald tied for the league lead in receptions with 103, good enough for 1,409 yards and 10 TDs.

Anquan Bolden, despite missing two games, was right behind with 102 grabs for 1,402 yards and seven touchdowns.

The running game was weak, so the Cardinals brought in perennial All-Pro running back Edgerrin James via the free agency route. He previously played with Peyton Manning for the Indianapolis Colts.

The offensive line is still suspect, although the free agent signing of Milford Brown and drafting of USC standout Deuce Lutui in the second round should help holdovers like Leonard Davis, Elton Brown and Oliver Ross become more effective.

Coach Dennis Green, who currently sports a 112-91 overall record in the NFL, knows the defense must perform more consistently too.

The defensive front has lost some key players to injury in the past couple of years, but the potential is there to be pretty good. Darnell Dockett, Bertrand Berry, Chike Okeafor and Kenny King are back and fourth-round draftee Gabe Watson, a 340-pound run stopper from Michigan, along with free agent signee Kendrick Clancy, are now in the mix.

Karlos Dansby is an emerging star at linebacker, but needs more help around him. Strong safety Adrian Wilson is one of the best in the league and last year inked a long-term deal with the club.

Antrel Rolle was counted on to solidify the situation at cornerback, but suffered through an injury-plagued rookie season. Maybe he's the shut-down corner the Cardinals need so badly.

We'll know soon enough. Training camp is right around the corner. Arizona must do better than 5-11 or 6-10.

"Good Luck to all Phoenix Area Teams!"

2005-2006 STATE CHAMPIONS

Brophy is a private, Jesuit, Catholic college preparatory that is committed to the belief that all creation is a reflection of God's love and presence which demands a passionate and generous response from the entire community.

We are dedicated to students of all socio-economic backgrounds who have the potential and desire to maximize their God-given gifts.

By creating an atmosphere for academic, emotional and spiritual growth, Brophy develops critically thinking, articulate, sensitive and aware students with a strong sense of self-worth. Through the process of nurturing the soul, Brophy offers these students an intimate relationship with God and inspires leaders who are devoted to the service of others in a global community.

Coach Joe Kersting, Glendale CC (Paynter Pics)

The beat goes on at GLENDALE CC, where Coach Joe Kersting returns three offensive and three defensive starters from his national championship team of a year ago.

"We have a chance to be a real good team," says Kersting. "We don't like the term rebuilding. We have a good sophomore class and we're a talented team. The NJCAA Preseason Poll has us at No. 6 and Street & Smith Magazine puts us at No. 4 in the country."

The Gauchos have Michael Griffin (6-3, 300) and Collin Boulay (6-1, 275) to anchor the offensive line, with standout WR John Means (6-2, 188) also back in uniform. Brenden Gaskins, a 6-4, 220-pound freshman transfer from Nevada, has an excellent arm and figures to take over at quarterback. Incoming freshman Ramel Ross (5-10, 185) is a homerun threat from the other wide receiver post.

Defensively, the veterans include MLB Morris Wooten (6-1, 235), DE Josh Galloway (6-3, 250) and CB Sam Hardy (6-1, 190).

Wooten is being heavily recruited. Galloway was second on the team in sacks last year and is an outstanding pass rusher.

Twins Victor and Vincent Anderson are two of Coach Dan Dunn's best players at MESA CC. Victor is a quarterback, while Vincent plays wide receiver. Both are 6-2, 215-pound sophomores from Illinois.

Other offensive weapons are TE Luke Taylor (6-4, 235) and WR Corey Brown (6-3, 215) – both sophomores.

Dunn's defense should be terrific, led by defensive linemen Billy McGrew (6-2, 230), Nick Ewalt (6-3, 240) and Tyson Estes (6-3, 230). OLB Kennan Copp (5-10, 210), OLB Chandler Gold (6-1, 220) and CB Rafael Mack (5-11, 180) are proven performers for the Thunderbirds.

SCOTTSDALE CC's top player appears to be MLB Tony Fein (6-2, 255), a veteran of the War in Iraq. He's being recruited by the likes of California, Michigan State, Washington State, etc.

Former Hamilton standouts Jeremy Tucker (WR, KR) and Myrio Davis (DB) will contribute, while DB Cyrus Igono (5-10, 205), OL Doug Diedrick (6-2, 295) and OL David Garbo (6-3, 305) should close out their JC careers in grand style. Former Centennial standout Joe Gaskey (6-2, 185) grayshirted last year and is now the starting quarterback.

Brophy and Hamilton Best on Paper Mountain View, Gilbert Close Behind

There's no doubt most coaches think Brophy Prep, Hamilton or Mountain View will walk away with the 5A-1 trophy in December. But very few people predicted Brophy would capture the crown a year ago. That's why we play the games!

Scooter Molander has a very tough act to follow. As a first-year coach at BROPHY PREP, he led his club to a sparkling 13-1 mark and the 5A-1 state title. Bronco fans waited many years for a moment like Brophy's thrilling 15-14 win over Hamilton.

Of course, Molander lost significant talent from last year's team; however, he returns 35 letterwinners, including a dozen starters. Big Blake Behrens, a 6-4, 275-pound senior, is a stalwart on both lines. Fellow seniors Shane Peterlin (6-4, 265) and A.J. Topps (6-3, 260) provide plenty of support.

Junior signalcaller Bryan Berens (6-2, 205) guides the offensive attack, which also features running backs Steve Pursley (5-9, 185) and Nick Natale (5-10, 165), plus wide receiver Chase Taylor (6-0, 185).

Defensively, watch for linebackers Andrew Serrano (6-0, 210), Michael Owings (5-11, 190) and Will Moskalik (6-2, 215) to shine, while eleventh-graders Anthony Hooks (6-0, 180) and Ray Polk (6-3, 205) do some good work in the secondary. In fact, Hooks and Polk are two of Brophy's quickest players. Members of last year's 7-2 JV will also help, as the Broncos aim for state honors once again.

John Wrenn is no longer the coach at HAMILTON, but the Huskies could win it all again, even in a transition year. After guiding Hamilton to four finals – including two titles – in five years, Wrenn recently accepted an assistant coach's position on Dirk Koetter's staff at Arizona State University.

The new guy is no stranger. Steve Belles moves over from Mountain Ridge and the beat goes on at Hamilton. LB Colin Parker (6-2, 205) and WR Kerry Taylor (6-1, 170) are Division 1 prospects. In fact, Parker, the son of former McClintock, ASU and NFL great Anthony Parker, has already given ASU a verbal commitment. Taylor will join him on the Sun Devil football team next year.

But the more immediate task is to get the Huskies back to the 5A-1 finale. Also returning from last year's team are Brad Gruner, J. Dixon, Matt Sanford, Trey Peacock, Tanner Chitwood, Mark Fazio, Justin Peters, Glen Love, Dan Carroll, Andy Workman, Brian Chavez, Joe Jackson, Covaughn Deboskie, Tony Sims, Matt Komoff, Kory Boxberger, Gilbert's Kyle Caballero is a top-notch quarterback with talent and experience (Paynter Pics).

Mike Amsen, Blake Swim, Jake Knudson, Mitchell Wedebrand, Chris Shanley, Jare Wishedel, Austin Gulkey, Mike Montoya, Mike Loffredo, Brad Dyal, Zack Melton, James Hardina, Jordon Indovino, Justin Harness, Chase Stone, Andrew Harrison and Chris Schaan.

Coach Tom Joseph, 46-7 in his four years there, has another formidable squad at MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Led by the Nielsen boys – QB/DB Riley (6-1, 212, Sr.) and FB/DE Ridge (6-1, 228, Sr.) – the Toros are loaded.

Also back from last fall's 11-2 outfit are defensive standouts like FS Steve Frost (5-10, 185, Sr.), DE Andy Centner (6-2, 225, Sr.), SS Hunter Reynolds (5-9, 190, Sr.), LB Eddie Diaz (5-9, 205, Sr.), DB Aaron Rhodes (6-2, 185, Sr.), DB Micah Yetter (6-2, 205, Sr.), DB Jay Willis (5-9, 185, Sr.) and DE Geovanny Alarcon (5-9, 210, Sr.).

Rhodes, Yetter and Alarcon will also line up on offense. Junior PK Kyle Jenkins is another weapon in the Toros' arsenal. Help is also on the way from a 7-2 junior varsity.

But don't overlook GILBERT. Coach Jesse Parker's Tigers are also highly regarded by opposing coaches going into the 2006 campaign. Twenty-eight lettermen are on hand from last year's unit that posted a solid 8-4 record.

Start with field general Kyle Caballero, a talented 6-3, 195-pound senior, who threw for 2,200 yards in 2005. Very few local teams – if any – have a man behind the center better than Caballero.

Other offensive weapons include RB Johnny Coon (5-8, 185, Sr.), RB Joe Zalhar (5-8, 185, Sr.), FB Devin Fuller (6-1, 210, Sr.), FB Chase Beattie (5-9, 190, Jr.), RB Zach Hall (5-10, 175, Sr.), WR Brian McDaniel (5-8, 160, Sr.), WR David Sepulveda (5-10, 170, Sr.), WR Brian Christie (5-8, 160, Sr.) and TE Canaan Holbrook (6-0, 195, Sr.). Fuller, Beattie, Hall, McDaniel, Christie and Holbrook will also man defensive posts for the Tigers.

Gilbert needs steady line play from Chris Beal (6-0, 210, Sr.), Ben Hulse (6-2, 200, Sr.) and David Woods (6-2, 205, Sr.).

Ryan Kinkead (5-10, 185, Sr.) and Taylor Webb (5-8, 165, Sr.) are playmakers at linebacker.

HORIZON entered the playoffs last November as the No. 6 seed. The Huskies promptly knocked off Desert Vista, 28-14, before dropping a 26-7 quarterfinal contest to Mesa Mountain View.

Coach Steve Casey has a good mix of veterans and newcomers back this year, led by OL/DL Tommy Ohmart (6-1, 250) and TE/DE Dan Pela (6-3, 225) – both seniors.

Other returnees include Marcus Lespron, Nick DeDonna, Oscar Alvarez, Nathan Leidigh, Steve Ballios, Logan Sullivan, Clay Stofferahn, Greg Djinis, Ryan Berg, Gary Cooper, Kyle Matthews, Alex Quinn, Kyle James, Nick Fallon, Michael Favia, Chris Hand, Jaron Clinton, Casey Fingerhut, Chuck Malone, Steven Parker, Joe Riccio, Zack Armstrong, Andrew Sauers, Michael Goldberg, Joe Pascale, Lee Sisk, Adam Browning, Alex Chancey, Kevin McCluskey, Ryan Dennehy, Derek Everett and Geoff McKinley.

CHANDLER could be making a big move this fall. The Wolves, just 4-6 last season, have a giant stopper on defense in Cameron Jordan, a 6-4, 255-pound senior who's being heavily recruited. "He is the most recruited athlete we've had in my five seasons at Chandler," says Head Coach Jim Ewan.

Another playmaker is DE/LB Tony Pawlak (6-4, 220), an all-region performer. Junior Marc Anthony (6-0, 170) is a quality cornerback.

Offensively, it all starts with signalcaller Kyle Hess (5-11, 185), who won all-region honors as a junior. He accounted for over 2,300 yards last year. His primary running mates when Chandler has the ball are TE/WR Dion Jordan (6-5, 215) and RB Steven Jackson (5-9, 185) – both juniors with outstanding speed.

Dan Hinds begins his fifth year at DESERT VISTA with an overall record of 26-17, including a 6-5 ledger a year ago.

This year's team possesses speed and an outstanding group of linebackers. That would be Avory Battle (5-9, 190, Sr.), Andrew Calvillo (6-1, 220, Sr.) and Steven Lambe (6-2, 240, Sr.), although Lambe will also spend time on the defensive line. The secondary has junior standouts Luke Matthews (6-2, 194) and Allante Battle (5-9, 159) to make plays.

Avory Battle is also a very capable runner, while Calvillo, Matthews and Allante Battle are go-to receivers.

A total of 20 lettermen return for the Thunder, including a dozen starters. Last year's junior varsity finished with a 7-2 slate.

Coach Pat Farrell appears to have a very competitive team back at ST. MARY'S. The Knights advanced to the playoffs in 2005, losing to Salpointe to finish with a 7-4 mark. Farrell's 25-year coaching record at St. Mary's now stands at an incredible 223-77-4.

Four offensive and five defensive starters return; there's a total of 20 letterwinners still on the roster, although the Knights will go without an experienced quarterback. Either junior Phillip Losada (5-9, 150) or senior Greg Gonzales (5-9, 150) will get the nod.

Senior Josh Felton (5-9, 170) has all-region credentials at both cornerback and running back. Senior Damarrice Green (6-2, 180) is a versatile performer at both linebacker and split end. Junior Andy Schweikert (5-5, 125) is a skillful placekicker.

Farrell has some size on the line with the likes of Frank Hernandez (5-11, 225, Sr.), Paul Dankowski (6-1, 220, Sr.), Josh Smith

(6-3, 280, Sr.) and Sean Alvarado (5-8, 230, Jr.) back in the fold.

In addition to Green, Jason Owens (6-2, 185, Sr.), Klayton Kristick (6-2, 225, Jr.) and Roman Lunsford (5-6, 170, Sr.) form a nice corps of linebackers. Josh Means (6-2, 155, Sr.) and James Morrison (5-10, 185, Jr.) are leaders in the defensive backfield.

MESA could surprise in 2006. Sure, the Jackrabbits missed the playoffs last year, ending with a 5-5 ledger. But Coach Dennis Parker has a good group back in uniform, including a whopping 25 lettermen from last fall.

Senior Dustin Clark is a 6-1, 180-pound force at wide receiver. Tight end Ean Castille (6-4, 205, Sr.) is another capable target, even though he may be better at defensive end.

Running backs Keelan Johnson (6-2, 190, Jr.) and Marcelino Ballesteros (5-6, 135, Sr.) will key the running attack. Up front, C Dustin Tucker (6-2, 220, Sr.), OL Similami Tautuu (6-2, 280, Sr.) and OL Filimore Jaumablo (6-3, 260, Sr.) will open the holes for the Jackrabbits.

The defensive front features senior Cameron Bailey (6-2, 230). Mesa should be a good team in a very tough league.

Jonathan Ott is a teamleader at MOUNTAIN RIDGE. The 6-2, 180-pound senior excels at both wide receiver and defensive back. He could be one of Arizona's best prep performers this year.

However, Ott and his teammates will be playing for a new coach this season. After a very successful five years (47-12) with the Mountain Lions, Steve Belles resigned to become the head coach at Hamilton.

So the three starters from last year's 8-3 club – along with the best from the 2005 JV that finished 7-1-1 – will be battling to keep Mountain Ridge's winning tradition intact.

Expect OT/DE Austin Duty (6-3, 225), QB/FS Ricky Fox (6-1, 185), OG/LB Mark Marion (5-11, 190), OG/DE Mark Scalise (6-0, 190), C/DT Tiberius Catinas (5-10, 240) and WR/K Jeff Locke (6-1, 170) to play well for the Lions. All but Locke are seniors.

Eleven returning starters. Twenty-six lettermen ready to go. A 2005 JV that won eight of nine games. Sounds like RED MOUNTAIN will be alright this year.

Coach Jim Jones watched his varsity finish with a 5-5 record last year, but the Mountain Lions should top that this fall.

Blake Behrens (66) is Brophy's leader in the trenches. He appears headed to a major college football program next year (Paynter Pics).

The returning regulars are all seniors: RB/DB Spencer Bodero (5-9, 185), SE/DB Jamie Davis (5-9, 165), TE/DT Kellen Farr (6-7, 265), OL/LB Aaron Hoberg (6-2, 220), FB/LB Peter Jeffery (5-11, 200), OL/DL Jeff Nave (6-3, 270), RB/DB Alex Schultz (5-8, 175), OL/DL Landon Weeks (6-0, 200), SE/DB Bryant Williams (6-1, 180), OL/LB Kyle Enders (6-0, 210) and OL/DL Jason Smith (6-0, 210). Good size and speed.

Others to watch include linemen Justin Chimento, Sean Curry, Will Fontes, Bryan Wightman, Daniel Zinkino, Adam Robertson, Sean Mozie and Scott McRea, as well as backs Eric Goonis, Logan Garman, Eric Gonyo, Joe Irizarry, Ryan Ziegler, Robert Messing and Chet Lake – once again, all seniors.

Our apologies if we have the HIGHLAND Hawks ranked too low. This team has a lot of potential, with 15 starters back on the field from a unit that won seven and lost four in 2005. How many varsities have that many starters available?

We're just not sure if Highland is better than Hamilton, Gilbert and Chandler in the Fiesta Region. Add Mesquite to the mix at the 5A-1 level and it could be a year to remember in that league.

Coach Preston Jones is certainly proud of his senior offensive line – OT Mark McAllister (6-2, 235), OT Carl VanWagoner (6-3, 255), C Dominic Ortiz (6-0, 235), OG Denniz Plzak (6-1, 235) and TE Nuku Latu (6-3, 240).

Senior Joe Sanchez (6-1, 175) will be the quarterback; he'll hand off to running backs Anthony Renteria (5-6, 170), Mike Madrid (5-11, 235) and Garrett Ives (5-10, 195) and throw to wide receivers Chase Halcomb (6-0, 175), Jeremy Traagdahl (5-11, 160) and Dylan Jones (6-1, 190), a junior with 4.5 speed.

Coach Tim McBurney and his BASHA Bears made a mighty jump last year – from a young school getting adjusted to 4A competition all the way to 5A-1 status and battling the state's biggest and best teams. And the Bears were highly competitive, beating Sunnyside, Dobson and Gilbert before bowing out in the first round of the playoffs against Hamilton.

McBurney has 27 lettermen back from his 2005 club that finished 6-5. The best of the Bears should be FB/T Nate Ervin (5-10, 220, Sr.), FB/LB Kyle Flannery (5-10, 185, Sr.), TE/LB Steven Yena (6-2, 205, Sr.), HB/DB Wil Ewing (6-0, 185, Sr.), OG/DE Joe Frias (6-0, 185, Sr.), TE/LB Will Craghead (6-1, 205, Sr.), TE/DE Kodi Otero (6-4, 225, Jr.) and OT/DE Stephen Sabin (6-4, 235, Jr.). Ervin has good strength. Flannery earned all-region honors at linebacker and Otero is not far from winning a few accolades himself.

A pair of juniors – Payton LaCivita (6-0, 175) and Troy Graham (6-4, 205) – are battling for the starting position at quarterback.

Others to watch include OT/DT Adam Benjamin (6-2, 240, Sr.), HB/DB Erroll Tucker (6-0, 175, Sr.), WR/DB Greg Freeman

(6-1, 175, Sr.), HB/DB Michael Malone (6-1, 180, Sr.), WR/DB James Blake (6-0, 175, Sr.), WR/DB Jeremy McCarver (6-0, 175, Sr.), FB/LB Braiden Seiver (6-0, 170, Sr.), WR/DB Mark Smith (5-6, 140, Sr.), FB/LB Matt Baldenegro (5-8, 170, Sr.), WR/DB/K Logan Myers (5-8, 170, Sr.), OT/DT John Fontes (6-4, 265, Jr.), OT/DT Trevor Bingham (6-3, 240, Jr.) and T/G Chris Gardner (6-0, 210, Sr.).

CASA GRANDE football seems to be on the rise. The Cougars, with Coach Tracy Stuart at the helm, finished 7-3 in 2005 and the future looks promising. Twelve starters are back in uniform and the JV won eight times in nine outings last fall.

Headliners in the passing game should be QB Joe Youcupicio (5-9, 165), WR Kevin Keeton (6-0, 170), WR Derek Meir (6-1, 175), WR Angelo Parks (5-7, 155) and TE Mike Subia (6-1, 185) – all seniors. Casa Grande is also deep at running back, thanks to the likes of Kevin Odom (6-0, 200), G.T. Tipton (5-9, 170) and Harnish Ayora (6-0, 195). Tipton is particularly quick.

Two-way contributors Spencer Weddle (6-3, 225), Andy Montano (5-10, 240), Ryan Cunningham (6-1, 260) and Silvino Villeneuve (5-9, 200) will battle in the trenches.

Keep an eye on Casa Grande this fall.

CORONA DEL SOL Head Coach Gary Venturo reminded us in his questionnaire, "It's not how many starters are coming back, but how they come back!" He should know; his record at Corona is an impressive 125-85-1.

We expect the 2006 Aztecs will be as competitive as ever. It's true Venturo's crew won five and lost five last year, but 11 starters are raring to go and the junior varsity put together a 7-1-1 mark last fall.

Senior Ryan Howard (6-0, 180) is the quarterback, while TE/FB/LB Cory Benson (6-1, 220), HB/DB James Hamm (5-7, 170), FB/DL Scott Orr (6-0, 195), REC/DB David Coxé (5-11, 165), REC/DB Josh Lange (6-1, 185) and REC/DB Terrance Strozier (5-10, 185) should contribute as skill position players.

Others to watch include OL/DL Ryan Kelly (6-1, 225, Jr.), Bill Kirgis (6-0, 230, Sr.), OL/LB Erik Lorenz (6-0, 200, Sr.), C/DL Trevor Stupp (6-2, 220, Jr.), OL/DL Eric Williams (6-0, 230, Sr.) and OL/DL Drew Vanderwerf (6-1, 210, Sr.).

For the first time in school history, Karl Kiefer won't be the head coach for the Pride of MOUNTAIN POINTE. Instead, Phil Abbadessa, Kiefer's longtime assistant, will handle that job.

But the cupboard isn't bare. In fact, 22 lettermen are on hand from last year's region championship team – which posted a 6-5 slate. Two-way linemen Chris Allbright (6-1, 260, Sr.), Cameron Kastl (6-4, 220, Sr.) and Gage Gorman (6-3, 255, Jr.) lead the way.

Kyle Drake (6-0, 185, Sr.) and Zach Heasley (6-2, 200, Sr.) are dynamite linebackers, while Darrick Johnson (5-11, 180, Sr.), Alejandro Romero (6-2, 180) and Alex

Romero (6-2, 180) offer quality at wide receiver and defensive back. The best running back should be Marquese Wheaton, a 5-11, 180-pound junior. And the kicking duties belong to senior Spencer Thompson (6-1, 175).

Either junior Michael Woodham or senior Nate Abalos could start at quarterback. Also pay attention to OL/DL Charles Beatty, OL/LB Jon Johnson, WR/LB Matt Whiteside, WR/DB Taylor Woodruff, WR/DB Pouyan Khatanifer, RB/DB Chris Stamps, WR/DB Steve Shill, WR/DB Giovanni Melenoez, RB/LB Jarrett Sleeper, OL/DL Steve Rotter and OL/DL Joseph Valdez.

All-staters Jermaine Williams and Brantwon Bowser have exhausted their eligibility at MARYVALE and moved on to ASU. And Coach Tom Bruney resigned in March after 12 years with the Panthers, so this year's team will definitely have some new leadership.

Bruney posted a 90-43 mark in his time at Maryvale; he guided his squads to five region championships and qualified for the playoffs nine times. Last year was another good one – 10-2 on the season and a berth in the state quarterfinals.

The new coach will greet 17 veterans from last year's bunch, including five starters. We anticipate that TE/DE Bobby Ramirez (6-3, 210, Sr.), OG/NT Andrew Wright (5-9, 250, Sr.), FB/DT Tyrell Shivers (6-1, 245, Jr.), QB/DB Michael McCord (5-10, 170, Jr.) and WR/DB Matt Walton (6-0, 180, Sr.) will set the pace. Sophomore kicker Victor Rivera (5-7, 140) isn't very big, but he can really boot the ball.

Headliners for CESAR CHAVEZ should be OL/DL Juan Chavez (6-1, 225, Sr.) and WR/LB Kyree Harvey (5-9, 180, Sr.). The Champions landed the playoffs last year, but took a first-round loss at the hands of eventual champion Brophy Prep.

Head Coach Frank Lutt is looking for improvement at ALHAMBRA this fall. The Lions return 11 starters from a year ago, when they won just once in 10 tries.

There's a good mix of veteran linemen and skill position players. The offensive line features seniors Marcus Funk (6-3, 245), Rusty Stanton (6-1, 280), Mario Vasquez (5-8, 200), Derek Gredinger (5-10, 260), David Trujillo (5-10, 215) and Sam Saenz (6-0, 170). All except Saenz – a linebacker – will also see action on the defensive front.

Roman Wilson, at 6-3 and 180 pounds, is a talented leader at quarterback and in the secondary. His primary targets should be senior TE/OLB John Spatz (6-3, 180), senior TE/DL Sergio Solis (6-2, 210) and junior WB/OLB Curtis Davis (6-4, 215). Junior RB/DB Jeff Rhone (5-10, 170) should spark the running game, as well as contributing on defense.

These key returnees and graduates from a 5-3-1 JV could produce more wins for Alhambra this time out.

Centennial Slight Favorite in 5A-2

The Centennial Coyote defense returns enough talent to take another serious run at the 5A-2 crown (Paynter Pics).

CENTENNIAL has been knocking on the door for several years; this could be a state championship season. Coach Richard Taylor returns a couple of second-team all-staters – DT Tom Ramsey (5-10, 241) and RS Warren Johnson (5-7, 140) – from last year's 11-3 squad.

Ramsey had 135 tackles and 10 sacks last year for the Coyotes. Taylor calls him "one of the finest players I've had in all my years of coaching." He'll also see playing time at fullback.

Johnson is a remarkable punt return specialist. He scampered for 615 yards and an incredible five TDs last year. Taylor will also utilize his great speed and athletic ability at wide receiver.

But that's just the beginning. A total of 30 lettermen are back and a key transfer is now a Coyote. Senior Alston Umuolo, a gifted 6-3, 206-pound senior with 4.5 speed, moved in from Spokane and will make his presence felt. He's slated for duty at wide receiver, quarterback and free safety. Center Brett Goetz (5-11, 235) is another team leader; he won all-region and honorable mention all-state laurels in 2005.

Junior QB Scott Burgett (6-2, 205) will line up behind Goetz, if Umuolo plays somewhere else. Besides Ramsey, juniors Jeff Hughes (5-11, 190) and Adam Shipley

(6-0, 190) will carry the pigskin. In addition to Johnson and Umuolo, the receiving corps features senior TE RJ Anderson (5-11, 191), senior TE Jess Knaack (6-3, 200), senior WR Mark Bell (6-1, 170) and junior WR Jarrell Barbour (6-2, 180).

Other major contributors for Centennial should be OG/DE Pedro Ramos (6-0, 230), OG/DT Joey Oliver (6-1, 240), CB Austin West (6-0, 170), OL Zach Schlink (6-4, 290) and OL Cory Woolery (6-3, 275).

Dethroning NORTH CANYON at the 5A-2 level might be too much to ask even for a special team from Centennial. The Rattlers were perfect (14-0) last time out and Coach Brian Cole welcomes back 18 veterans from that outstanding team.

The best returnee is two-way lineman Brandon Harris, a mammoth 6-3, 285-pound senior with a big future. Harris is joined by OG/DL Kevin Hampton (5-10, 230), OG/DL Cody Croasmun (6-1, 230), OL/LB Matt Rios (6-1, 235), DE Gary Whitt (6-2, 240) and DL Jake Fuller (5-11, 240) to give North Canyon a formidable group of linemen.

Senior Tim Boling (6-1, 190) and junior Blake Schembri (5-10, 200) will handle the duties at quarterback, while seniors Brady Shimek (6-1, 225), John Mahr (5-9, 180), Tyler Peterson (5-10, 180) and Jordan

Scott (5-10, 185) battle for carries at running back. Scott is a transfer from Mountain Ridge. Senior Joel Mathers (6-1, 205) is set at tight end and linebacker. Tyler Wagner is a two-time all-region punter.

Cole heads into his fourth year at North Canyon with a sparkling 23-11 ledger. Barring unforeseen circumstances, his winning percentage will improve again this fall.

The IRONWOOD Eagles narrowly missed a shot at the first AIA 5A-2 crown, when they dropped a tough 35-34 overtime decision to eventual champion North Canyon in last year's state semifinals.

Can you expect to see the Eagles vying for the title this year? If they do, honors candidates Eric Hagg and William Yancy will definitely lead the way.

Hagg (6-2, 185) is a dynamite wide receiver; he grabbed 37 balls for 844 yards and 12 scores last year. Yancy (6-4, 225) is getting plenty of attention from college recruiters for his defensive line play.

Another top-notch player for Ironwood is senior WR/DB Leonard Jackson (5-9, 170). He chipped in 28 receptions for 473 yards and three TDs in 2005.

"With our returning starters and depth, we expect to be very competitive in 5A-2," says Jeff Bowen, head mentor at WESTVIEW. The Knights (5-7 last year) have seven starters back on each side of the football, a total of 30 letterwinners altogether from 2005.

A trio of seniors – RB/DB Nate Jones (5-10, 175), OG/DE Kris Poindexter (6-3, 265) and TE/SLB Paul Patino (6-3, 240) – lead the way.

Jones is definitely an exciting player to watch. He'll work with QBs Albert Lizarraga (5-8, 150, Jr.) and Shane McOwen (6-0, 150, Sr.), as well as fellow RBs Martin Guzman (5-11, 205, Sr.), Demetrick Harrison (5-8, 150, Sr.) and Ethan Milton (5-9, 160, Sr.) in the offensive backfield. Besides Patino, the receivers are SE Mario Perez (5-9, 180, Sr.) and TE Ray Ortega (6-0, 190, Jr.).

OT/DT Leo Clark (5-11, 295, Sr.), OT/DT Casey Johnson (6-0, 250, Sr.), OG/DT Evander Satterwhite (5-11, 200, Sr.), C/DT Guy Reynolds (6-2, 285, Jr.), OT/DT Fabian Martinez (6-1, 245, Sr.), OG/DE Schuyler Waterhouse (6-2, 240, Jr.) and OG/DL Steven Arenas (5-8, 210, Sr.) join Poindexter in the trenches. Junior kicker Adam Garcia (5-10, 150) is a real asset for the Knights.

Let's not forget wide receivers T.J. Simpson and Chris Miranda at PEORIA, a team that figures to throw the football around again this fall.

Simpson (6-0, 175) is set for a great senior year. He caught 29 passes for 749 yards (25.8 per catch) and seven touchdowns last year. He also won the 100, 200 and 400 meter state titles last spring at the 5A-2 level. Simpson recently gave an oral commitment to play football at ASU beginning in 2007.

Meanwhile, Miranda (5-10, 155) was making life miserable for opposing defenses with 45 catches for 866 yards and three TDs.

Junior Dante Jones (6-2, 195) is a talented two-way player at quarterback and defensive end. Dylan Winemiller takes over as head coach at NORTH. He has a good nucleus returning from 2005 Mustang team that won 11 of 13 battles and reached the state semifinals before losing to Centennial. Twenty-two lettermen return from that squad, highlighted by a strong group of linemen.

Manny Hernandez (6-0, 270, Jr.), Nico Estra-Stephen (6-1, 230, Jr.), Justin Strong (5-10, 215, Jr.), Edward Downing (6-2, 210, Jr.) and Mitch Mangiapane (5-10, 215, Sr.) are all slated for two-way duty in the trenches.

Their work of the offensive side of the ball could be invaluable to returning quarterback Stephen Vallejo, a 5-9, 165-pound senior. Members of last year's 7-2 junior varsity will also help.

"All region teams will remain competitive," says SOUTH MOUNTAIN Head Coach George De La Torre, "and I expect Carl Hayden and Alhambra to be greatly improved."

The Jaguars have plenty of experienced veterans heading into 2006. In fact, eight starters on offense and seven on defense are back in uniform. South could have a dynamite passing attack, led by senior QB Robert Benjamin (6-2, 185) and senior receivers D.J. Lewis (6-2, 180), Tariq Smith (6-0, 160) and Michael Debasoy (6-2, 225). Junior Clinton Wheaton (5-8, 165) could also latch onto a few aeriels.

Big center Jeremy Smith (6-1, 280) will help provide protection for Benjamin, when he's not opening holes for running backs Josh Brown (6-1, 180, Sr.), Ivon Worley (5-11, 170, Jr.), Treilon Parkman (5-7, 160, Jr.) and Jerel Lodell (5-6, 140, Jr.). Working with Smith up front will be Dan Dominguez (5-8, 200, Jr.) will team with David Dominguez, Rucker and Parkman to give the Jaguars a very capable linebacking corps.

SUNRISE MOUNTAIN advanced to the 5A-2 state quarterfinals last year before losing to eventual champion North Canyon by a 41-26 count. The Mustangs won a thriller, 29-26, over Barry Goldwater in the first round.

Well, 25 lettermen – but only five starters – are still in uniform for Coach Will Babb this time out.

Stalwarts in the line should be Darden Zenullahi (6-4, 260, Jr.), Mark Wright (5-11, 215, Sr.), Will Babb (6-2, 225, Sr.) and Kevin Duran (5-11, 250, Sr.).

Gilbert Galindo, a 5-11, 195-pound junior, heads up the linebacking corps and could also be the starter at quarterback. Senior Blake Ortiz (5-10, 150) is certainly capable of making plays at wide receiver and defensive back. Senior Matt Sjoersdma is a 5-11, 235-pound bruiser at fullback.

Twenty-five varsity veterans are back in uniform for Coach Sven Christianson at DEER VALLEY. Twelve starters are included in that group from a club that won six and lost six in 2005.

Offensively, the Skyhawks have a solid foundation of returning starters in QB Tyler Hosler (6-1, 185, Sr.), FB Kevin Derossett (5-9, 215, Sr.), REC Marcus Patterson (6-3, 190, Sr.), REC Spenser Albertson (6-3, 185, Sr.), REC Jimmy Goad (6-2, 190, Jr.), TE Cory Willis (6-2, 210, Jr.) and OG Royce Sumayo (5-9, 205, Sr.).

Defensively, Derossett was a 2005 starter at linebacker, along with LB Zach Hernandez (6-0, 205, Sr.), DB Bryce Cooper (5-11, 185, Jr.), DB Alfred Bowden (5-9, 180, Jr.), DE Marshall Swerdfeger (6-0, 195, Sr.) and DE Caleb Livingston (6-0, 200, Sr.).

Coach Rick Mey continues to do good work at SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR, where the Eagles concluded last season at 6-5. They bowed out in the first round of the playoffs with a 35-17 loss to Tucson powerhouse Sunnyside.

Two first-team all-region players are back on the field for Mey. They are DB Steven Von Kolen (5-9, 175, Sr.) and L John Springer (6-2, 260, Jr.). Another big junior lineman – transfer Eric Giles (6-3, 285) – will certainly contribute.

Van Kolen is excellent in the secondary and could be in for a big year. Junior Elliot Ness (6-0, 220) is a solid linebacker, while senior Phil Evans (6-1, 180) is a three-year starter at his wide receiver slot.

A total of 23 lettermen return, including six starters on defense and four on offense. Sandra Day O'Connor should find itself in the playoffs again in 2006.

Running back Michael Williams (5-10, 200) leads a group of 17 returning lettermen for PARADISE VALLEY. Six of those varsity veterans were starters. Williams has great speed and should be one of the better rushers in the Valley.

Coach Donnie Yantis is counting on junior Grant O'Brien (5-10, 175) to get the job done at quarterback. Both junior Jason Scharztz (5-8, 210) and senior Jacob Igono (6-0, 190) will see action at running back and linebacker.

Junior Chris McFaul (6-1, 170) and senior Jon Crone (6-3, 210) will start at wide receiver and tight end, respectively. The leaders up front are C/DT Alex Miller (6-

Greenway Tops in 4A-1 Cactus Looking to Repeat

Jordan Flores of Cactus snared 46 passes and tallied 10 touchdowns for the Cobras last year. He's a big part of Coach Larry Fetkenhier's returning nucleus of players set to defend the 4A-1 crown (Paynter Pics).

Will the Greenway Demons be consistently good enough to outlast perennial powers Cactus and Chaparral? Where does Millennium fit in? And so on!

GREENWAY Coach Mike Brown predicts "a wide-open" race for the 4A-1 trophy. He's probably right. Neighborhood rival Cactus won its first football title in 2005, so maybe it's Greenway's turn in 2006.

Brown begins his eleventh year at Greenway, having recorded a lofty 78-38 ledger over the past decade. He guided his 2001 and 2002 squads to the 4A finals.

Nick Vaden, a 6-2, 205-pound senior, leads the Demons on both sides of the line of scrimmage. He's a solid running back and an imposing defensive end.

His running mate at the other defensive end slot is junior Dustin Freitag (6-4, 235), while senior John Williams (6-0, 228) is a playmaker at defensive tackle.

Juniors Brenin Brooks (5-11, 200) and Robert Sprengeler (5-9, 165) are quality performers. Brooks excels at tight end and linebacker; Sprengeler is a wide receiver-defensive back standout.

Don't expect CACTUS to give up its 4A-1 crown without one terrific fight. In fact, the Cobras (14-0 last year) have a very respectable 20 lettermen back from their state championship team. However, just four starters are still available.

Coach Larry Fetkenhier, 210-58-4 in his 22 years at Cactus, is counting on senior wideout Jordan Flores (6-1, 170) to be a top-notch weapon on offense. He had 46 receptions for 685 yards and 10 scores last year. But first-class quarterback Jonathan Tobin and his 2,127 passing yards are gone, so junior Ryan Underwood (5-10, 170) will have to step in and do the job. Senior wide receiver Manny Solarez (5-11, 160) will also be a positive factor when the Cobras take to the air.

The running game took a heavy hit with the graduation loss of Richard Morris. Taking over is Bruce Yeo (5-11, 184), a junior with breakaway speed.

Anchoring the offensive line is all-region pick Stephen Toole, a 5-10, 261-pound center. Other notables in the trenches are junior Jeremy Lucas (6-2, 268) and senior Matt Eberhart (6-0, 212).

Fetkenhier is looking for superior play on defense from senior backers Tim Lyerla (6-0, 202) and Trevor Carlisle (5-11, 191), in addition to DL Shane Estrada (5-10, 238).

"We're going to be very young at the skill positions," says CHAPARRAL head mentor Ron Estabrook. "Our strength, if we have one, will be on defense. We also expect improvement in our offensive line."

Senior defensive end Rodney Shaw (6-1, 238) should anchor that Firebird defense. He might be Estabrook's top returning player. Senior linebacker Matt Phelan (6-1, 225) is another top-notch veteran.

The secondary features senior Casey Lytle (6-1, 215) and junior Mike Cummings (6-1, 185). On the other side of the ball, senior receiver Vince Coleman (5-10, 185) and senior offensive lineman Matt Streich (6-0, 245) should excel. Altogether, this club returns 17 letterwinners – including eight starters. The JV won eight straight games in 2005.

The Firebirds were barely defeated (9-6) in the semifinals last year by eventual state champion Cactus. Chaparral, under the direction of Estabrook, previously captured the 4A state crown in 1999, 2000 and 2002.

MILLENNIUM should be good again, although duplicating last year's 13-1 mark will be a tall order. Coach Mark Smith welcomes back just eight lettermen (four starters) from his state semifinal squad. He will gain some good talent from last fall's 6-2 junior varsity.

Offensive sparkplugs figure to be Akio Lloyd (5-9, 175, RB), Anthony Dunkerly (5-9, 170, WR) and Blake Griffen (6-2, 225, OL).

Defensive mainstays include Chris Lewis (5-8, 165, DB), Pat Pangle (5-10, 170, DB) and Zach Tillia (6-4, 220, LB).

The MOON VALLEY Rockets have a number of all-region selections back for their senior year. Of course, the headliner is offensive lineman Javarrio Burkes, a mammoth 6-6, 325-pound Division 1 prospect. He's being heavily recruited by the likes of Arizona State, Arizona, Georgia, Miami, Michigan, Southern Cal, Tennessee and Washington.

Also back for the Rockets are all-region second-team linemen Vince Paciulli (6-1, 280) and Kyle Black (6-1, 255), as well as linebacker Demond Buckner (6-2, 205).

PRESCOTT, under the guidance of Lou Beneitone, could challenge for region and state honors. After all, the Badgers completed the 2005 campaign with a steady 5-6 mark and many (20 lettermen, 10 starters) will suit up again this time out.

The running back-linebacker combo of Shane Garvey (6-1, 210) and Marco Guzman (5-7, 160) landed all-region second-team recognition a year ago. They'll set the pace.

Senior Josh Wederski (6-0, 175) is expected to start at quarterback; his best receiver figures to be senior Jeff Seastrand (6-0, 160).

These skill position performers will benefit from the line play of Clayton Bewley (6-2, 205, Sr.), Brian Barberena (6-0, 190, Jr.) and Mitch Zembik (6-3, 250, Sr.). Beneitone's tenth year with the Badgers could be a good one, indeed.

Coach Kelley Moore has done a nice job at INDEPENDENCE, where the Patriots return 18 lettermen from last year's 7-4 bunch. This year's unit has some decent size and good team speed.

Honors candidates Jose Sanchez and Jarrod Nash lead the way. The former is a 5-11, 232-pound force at offensive guard and defensive end. The latter is a 6-1, 237-pounder with 4.6 speed. He plays both running back and linebacker.

Moore is also relying on linemen Ben Alonzo (6-0, 221, Sr.) and Diego Bencomo (5-10, 189, Jr.) to help give senior QB Ruben Ramirez (5-9, 156) time to throw. Tight end Manny Hiles (6-0, 210, Sr.) is an impressive receiver.

There are plenty of capable running backs on the roster, in addition to Nash, namely Michael Morrison (5-8, 142, Sr.), James Wells (5-11, 168, Sr.), JaMichael Young (6-0, 194, Sr.), Brandon Terry (5-10, 173, Sr.) and TyQuan Wilson (5-10, 178, Jr.). Don't overlook the Patriots.

If you believe opposing coaches, the SAGUARO Sabercats could certainly contend this fall. Led by RB/LB Alex Rubin, a gutsy 5-10, 195-pound senior, Saguaro appears to be crosstown rival Chaparral's biggest challenger in the 4A Desert Sky Region.

Either senior TJ Rauch (6-0, 175) or junior Tim Rubin (5-11, 170) will win the job at quarterback. Rubin will carry the ball quite a bit. And the Sabercats will pass to the likes of senior Max Tabach (6-1, 175), senior Shane Anderson (6-1, 208) and junior Andrew Johnson (5-6, 175).

Defensively, linemen Chris Merrill (6-1, 245, Jr.), John Subczuk (5-10, 240, Sr.) and Derek Bisgard (6-0, 205, Jr.) are among the 17 lettermen returning for Saguaro.

AGUA FRIA has a gem of a player in RB/DE Everson Griffen. This 6-4, 260-pound senior ran for nearly 800 yards and eight scores last fall. But it's his size and 4.6 speed on the defensive side of the football that have college recruiters hot on his trail.

Rivals.com has him ranked as its top defensive end in the country and the No. 5 prospect overall. He is being recruited by 30 schools and already has offers from the likes of Arizona State, Arizona, California, UCLA, USC, Colorado, Michigan, Oregon and Oregon State.

The team leader at APOLLO should be RB/DB Prince Amukamara, who rushed for over 1,200 yards last fall. This 6-1, 180-pound senior is one of 20 returning lettermen for Coach Zach Treadgill, whose club finished 4-6 in 2005. Members of an undefeated JV (7-0-1 last fall) will also contribute heavily.

Amukamara will share ball-carrying duties with RB/LB Jimmy Lee (5-6, 170, Sr.), RB/DB Justin Livingstone (5-10, 165, Jr.) and RB/WR/DB Torrick Vaughn (5-6, 150, Jr.). Paving the way up front will be bookend offensive linemen Nick Thurman (6-2, 230) and Cory Cavazos (6-0, 275) – both seniors.

Other Hawks to watch are LB Aaron Fierros (5-8, 175, Sr.) and WR/LB Federico Poloni (5-11, 170, Sr.).

"As COPPER CANYON prepares for 2006, our goal is to be a very disciplined but aggressive team that gets better each week," says Head Coach Ron Frank.

The Aztecs will play their first varsity contest against Sinagua as part of an independent varsity schedule. Frank is a proven teacher. He came to Copper Canyon from Millennium, where he was named the Arizona Republic's Big School Coach of the Year in 2001.

Up from last year's 7-1 JV are RB/LB Tim Hullaby (6-0, 190), OG/DT Anthony Greiner (5-11, 195), TE/LB Manny Hernandez (6-1, 185), RB/LB Rashad Davis (5-10, 175) and WR/DB Ryan Gibbs (5-10, 170). It should be an interesting year for Coach Frank and his troops at Copper Canyon.

What an exciting year this will be at RAYMOND KELLIS. Head Coach Jason Golden is preparing his guys for their first varsity season in school history. The Cougars handled their junior varsity schedule in more-than-acceptable fashion, putting together a 5-3 campaign.

Position players of note are TB Xavier Alvarez (5-10, 175), FB Isiah Mangum (6-0, 200), WR Mike Sanders (6-2, 180) and WR Patrick Lawler (5-9, 165) – all juniors.

Up front Kellis features OG Keith Simpson (6-2, 240, Jr.) and OT Pete Lavender (6-4, 220, So.). Defensively, Golden has high hopes for DT Kenny Barnes (6-2, 220, Jr.), SS Alex Duncan (5-11, 180, Jr.), OLG Zach Richey (6-3, 190, Jr.) and ILB John Adams (5-18, 180, Jr.).

Building a first-class football program is a difficult chore and the Cougars will certainly take their lumps at various stages of the 2006 season. But the foundation is in place to build for the future.

First-Time Winners Dominate Finals

2005 Season in Review, Sponsored by Blue Cross Blue Shield

First-year Coach Scooter Molander accepts the 5A-1 State Championship trophy, while Brophy fans celebrate their last-minute win over Hamilton (Paynter Pics).

By David Kukulski

Brophy was the 5A-1 champion. North Canyon outlasted everyone at the 5A-2 level. Cactus would not be denied in the 4A-1 ranks. And Valley Christian completed the trend in the 2A classification.

What trend? None of these schools had ever won a football state championship before.

In recent years, Brophy had battled Hamilton, Horizon, Mesa Mountain View, Westwood, Dobson, Red Mountain, Mesa, Desert Vista, and especially rival St. Mary's for a chance to take the title. Each of these schools won the coveted crown at least once. The Broncos came close in 1996 and 1998, but lost in the finals. Would they ever win the big one?

Well, you can't win a bigger game than the Broncos did at Sun Devil Stadium on the night of December 3, 2005. Trailing a talented Hamilton squad with its sights set on a third straight "big school" crown, Brophy rallied in the final six minutes to capture a heartstopping 15-14 victory over the Huskies.

Sophomore quarterback Bryan Berens connected with Matt Smith on a seven-yard TD pass with just 34 seconds remaining.

Brophy won 13 of 14 contests and Molander won several Coach of the Year awards.

Or maybe your Coach of the Year was North Canyon's Brian Cole. His Rattlers also came from behind in the 5A-2 finale to beat Centennial, 27-16. Down 9-7 at half-time and 16-15 midway through the final quarter, North Canyon used a fumble recovery and blocked punt to set up the winning touchdowns.

Sherrod Austin scored from 19 yards out with 5:20 left on the clock to give the Rattlers a 21-16 lead. Then, quarterback Tim Boling found the end zone on an 11-yard run with 3:25 remaining to put his club up by the final count.

Coach Brian Cole and his North Canyon Rattlers are honored at halftime of an Arizona Cardinals game last December. Cole won Coach of the Year recognition from Cardinal Charities (Paynter Pics).

North Canyon was perfect (14-0) on the year and was a very deserving champion.

The same could be said for Cactus High School. The fourth time was the charm for Coach Larry Fetkenhier and his Cobras.

Cactus had made three previous appearances in the state championship game, but had left the field each time without tasting victory. After losing a 34-6 halftime lead and the crown to Moon Valley in 2004, Fetkenhier and crew may have wondered if their time would ever come.

It did. On the evening of December 2, at University of Arizona Wildcat Stadium, Cactus played a terrific game and completed its own undefeated season (14-0) with a convincing 30-7 triumph over Sabino.

The story was much the same for Valley Christian in the 2A Championship Game at McClintock High School on November 26th.

The Trojans, under first-year head mentor Bill Morgan, avenged a 2004 finals loss to Phoenix Valley Christian helmets surround the Trojans' new trophy after Coach Bill Morgan and his squad defeated Arizona Lutheran in the 2005 2A title contest (Paynter Pics).

Christian. Valley Christian relied on its powerful running game to deliver 368 rushing yards in an impressive 45-28 win over Arizona Lutheran. Overall, the Trojans registered 457 yards in total offense. The ringleader was senior running back Reggie Sheffield, who contributed 185 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Valley Christian ended up with a nifty 12-1 record, while Arizona Lutheran was 12-2 – both losses coming at the hands of the Trojans.

Valley Christian outscored its opponents 187-55 in the playoffs.

Of course, not every championship went to “the new kid on the block.” Perennial powerhouse Coolidge hadn’t won the big one recently, but the Bears were champions in the early 80s under Larry Delbridge.

Coach Carlo Hernandez had guided his team to three title contests in four years, but Blue Ridge (twice) and Globe (once) had beaten the Bears.

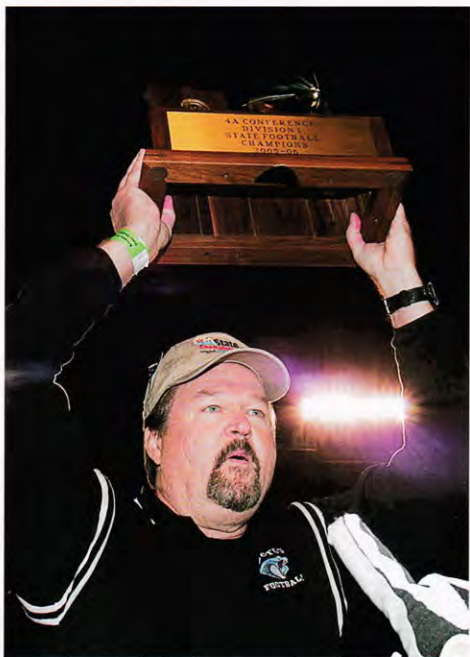

This time, Hernandez and his guys walked off the field as champions, thanks to a 34-19 decision over Winslow at McClintock High School on November 26. Previously in the playoffs, Coolidge had defeated Snowflake (48-0), River Valley (55-7) and Wickenburg (27-20).

The 4A-2 winner was Tucson’s Palo Verde High School. The Titans made a great championship run, taking down city rival Cholla and top-seed Arcadia in the quarterfinals and semifinals, respectively. Palo Verde’s only losses last fall were to those two teams. With a stubborn defense that allowed only 127 yards in total offense to Mingus, the Titans grabbed their first football crown since 1973.

The 1A trophy went to Pima, the defending champs in eight-man football. Although the Roughriders entered the playoffs as a lower seed, Coach John Bryant’s boys felt right at home, beating Canyon State Academy (40-20), Joseph City (32-12) and Mayer (40-36).

The Roughriders beat Clifton, 60-22, in the 2004 finale, after losing to Mogollon, 42-32, in the 2003 championship game.

The 4A-1 trophy belongs to Head Coach Larry Fetkenhier and his never-say-die Cobras. Cactus advanced to the finals three straight years (Paynter Pics).

Sunnyslope Poised for Big Campaign

Mingus, Arcadia, Bradshaw Mountain to Challenge

"We have experience and leadership in our returning lettermen, paced by our senior class," says head mentor Dallas Hickman at SUNNYSLOPE.

Outstanding depth doesn't hurt either.

There are graduation losses to overcome – namely TJ Campbell and Chase Corley. But QB/DB Sean Maraz (6-2, 180), who passed for over 2,000 yards, will guide the Vikings to a step up from last year's 9-5 campaign. He'll have plenty of help.

Junior Beau Grado (6-1, 180) is a versatile performer on both sides of the ball; he could become Maraz's chief target in the passing game. Seniors Jeff Poland (6-1, 160) and Roby Owsley (5-7, 150) can also catch the pigskin.

Jordan Ong (5-8, 160, Sr.) should be the primary ballcarrier. Clearing a path for Ong will be senior linemen Frank Delagarza (6-2, 210), Casey Mahoney (5-10, 205), Matt Shillington (5-10, 190), Austin Diaz (5-8, 180) and Tyler Holm (5-11, 190).

Hickman is expecting each of these players to contribute on defense too. A total of 19 letterwinners are back on campus, including an impressive 13 starters.

An outstanding and motivated group of young men are back at BRADSHAW MOUNTAIN. When the 4A split into two divisions last year, a serious run at the state title became possible for a whole new set of teams. Palo Verde won the 4A-2 crown last year and Arcadia advanced to the semifinals. Coach Chuck Apap's guys could be this year's Cinderella.

The Bears won seven of 11 last fall and have four all-region picks still in uniform. Headliners are senior RB/LB Levi Moore (5-9, 175), senior DT Phillip Marchant (5-10, 238), junior OG Matt Buehler (6-1, 220) and junior DB/P/K

Ben Pigg (5-10, 170). Moore and Pigg can really run.

Bradshaw Mountain's signalcaller should be Kegan Chilton, a 5-10, 157-pound senior, while senior Matt McFadden (6-2, 205) is the top veteran lineman. Defensively, watch for DT Brenden Flygare (6-3, 279), DE Job Gomez (5-11, 187) and LB Tyler Do (5-8, 178) – all seniors – to set the pace.

An outstanding pass-catch combination continues to be the big news at CACTUS SHADOWS. The Falcons were much improved last year, concluding matters with a respectable 5-6 ledger. Senior QB Phillip Aholt found big receiver Kyle Watkins frequently last fall, and for big yardage.

If the Falcons can keep improving, 2006 could be an exciting year. Coach Chad DeGrenier also has some good players from an excellent junior varsity (7-1 in 2005) ready to contribute.

Defensively, the Falcons should have a terrific linebacking corps headed by the likes of Eric Gurraiz, Ryan Patchele, Sean January and Matt Williams.

The defensive front is solid, thanks to Chris Manship, Trace Stevens and Bobby Wolf, while the leaders in the secondary should be Chasan Royer and Kyle Royer.

The QUEEN CREEK Bulldogs were good last year and they're going to be good again this time out. In fact, 4A football seems to suit Coach Curt LeBlanc and his players just fine – they finished 9-3 last season.

Senior FB/LB David Hollis (5-11, 205) was an all-region selection in 2005, while QB Dayton Jones (6-0, 165, Sr.) nabbed second-team all-region honors. RB/LB Austin Carnes (5-11, 170, Sr.) was an honorable mention all-region performer.

Keep an eye on TE/DL Aulama Lemaw (6-0, 210) and OT/DT Ian Spencer (6-3, 270) to supply the power.

NOTRE DAME PREP returns a nice trio to lead the 2006 offensive attack.

They would be QB Shawn Renfree (6-2, 175), RB Joe Mlachak (5-9, 160) and WR Mike Greco (6-3, 200).

Renfree threw for 1,533 yards and 10 touchdowns last year as a sophomore. Mlachak grabbed 29 balls for 512 yards from his backfield post, while Greco snagged 31 passes for 488 yards and six TDs in 2005.

Improving on the Saints' 3-8 record from a year ago will be top priority.

Gone is big Cody Anderson, but Coach Max Ragsdale hopes the tide has turned at APACHE JUNCTION.

Anderson now plays tight end for the University of Arizona; Ragsdale begins his fourth year with the Prospectors with 15 returning lettermen and graduates from a super 8-1 JV.

QB/DB Dalton Hoch (5-8, 190) doesn't have much height, but should do a solid job for this year's crew. AJ's best player might be senior WR/DB Justin Higuerra (6-3, 195), who clocks 4.7 in the 40.

Steven Duarte (5-9, 190) is a capable running back who will also be a backer on defense. The leaders in the trenches are seniors Zach Tourangeau (6-3, 290) and Nick Tovar (5-8, 220). Besting last season's 5-7 record is a distinct possibility.

GLENDALE had a nice year in 2005, going 7-5 and hitting the playoffs. However, some major rebuilding is on the agenda for Coach Jason Wilke. Just four starters and only 10 lettermen are on hand for 2006.

Sophomore Montrell Edwards (5-8, 155) is set to start at quarterback for the Cardinals. His supporting cast will include TE Craig Lacey (6-2, 260, Sr.), TE Marvin Woods (6-1, 190, Sr.), RB Michael Chavez (5-8, 155, Sr.), RB Freeland

Wilson (5-8, 160, Jr.), WR Michael McWilliams (5-9, 155, Sr.), WR Tyrese McGruder (5-9, 160, Jr.), OL David Soto (5-10, 180, Sr.) and OL Andrew Mendez (5-11, 195, Jr.).

All but Edwards are slated for defensive duty too. Lacey could be a special player for Glendale.

CORONADO suffered through a difficult 2005 season, winning just twice in 10 outings. But Coach B.J. Pasquel (32-32 in his six years at Coronado) has a terrific leader returning in Nolan Lamb. The 5-11, 160-pound senior won all-region recognition as a receiver last fall and is also a stalwart in the secondary for the Dons.

Exactly 20 lettermen return, including seven starters on offense and eight on defense. Others to watch include RB/LB Tyler Bair (5-11, 165), OL/DL Eddie Trujillo (6-0, 225), RB/LB Matt Beltran (5-5, 150), OL/DL Vail Cloar (5-11, 275) and OL/DE Chris Berry (6-1, 215).

WASHINGTON, 3-7 in 2005, has quarterback Jon Bowman back to lead the Rams. This 6-4, 195-pounder connected on 99 of 158 attempts for 1,320 yards and 10 scores as a junior.

Josh Brees on offense and Bryan Payette on defense are big-play guys for Coach Ryan Felker at DESERT EDGE, 3-7 last year.

Brees (6-3, 175) is the quarterback for the Scorpions, while Payette (6-0, 190), a linebacker, led the team in tackles a year ago. Both are twelfth-graders.

Assisting Brees when Desert Edge has the ball will be TE Brandon Ortega (6-1, 225), C Brad Rach (6-1, 185) and OT Travis Muller (6-4, 250).

Supporting Payette will be all region defensive backs Travis Andrade and Tarell Brock, plus LB David Berg, DT John Noriega, DE Marcus Jacobs, DB Markell Brock and DB William Flowers.

Reaching the .500 mark is the next big goal for Felker and team, as Desert Edge seeks to build a strong football program.

Cardinals Stadium Ready for Kickoff

By Andy Kukulski

After calling Sun Devil Stadium "home" for nearly two decades, the Arizona Cardinals are set to kick off their 2006 football season under a new roof. The brand new Cardinals Stadium, built in the city of Glendale, is set to open its doors on August 12th with an exhibition game against the Pittsburgh Steelers. On September 10th, Arizona will take on the San Francisco 49ers to kick off the NFL regular season.

Though there's no doubt that the Cards are the new stadium's chief tenant, the first-class event facility is expected to host many events throughout the year. The stadium is already slated to be the new home for the Fiesta Bowl and will serve as one of the venues in a four-year rotation to host the BCS National Championship Game. And, of course, it has already been named as the site for Super Bowl XLII, which will be played in January of 2008.

Outside of football, you can expect a wide variety of events. The versatile stadium can be set up to accommodate motor sports, concerts, shows, conventions, rodeos and even other sporting events. Award-winning architect Peter Eisenman, in cooperation with HOK Sport, is responsible for designing the stadium, which somewhat resembles an abstract representation of a coiled rattlesnake or even possibly a barrel cactus.

The stadium has a capacity of 63,000 permanent seats, with the luxury of another 10,000 if so desired. It has a retractable roof for maximum comfort of its patrons. It also features the first-ever fully retractable natural grass playing surface in the United States.

The field itself is housed within a movable, 12 million-pound tray that runs 403 feet in length by 234 feet in width. Steel wheels powered by electronic motors can move the field in or out of the stadium on tracks that are embedded in the concrete floor below. Moving the field takes 45 to 60 minutes. This allows natural grass to get the necessary sunlight and nutrients it needs to stay healthy. It also permits the facility to become a true multipurpose venue and to host other kinds of events.

The Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza surrounds the entire stadium. It was built to honor the former Arizona Cardinals defensive back, who lost his life serving in the United States Army while stationed in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

With its location next to the Glendale Arena and the emerging entertainment and retail center called Westgate, the Cardinals Stadium is a major part of an area that will certainly become Glendale's main attraction.

In the years ahead, this area around the new stadium will experience heavy growth, with restaurants, shopping and entertainment outlets on the way (Lindsey Kukulski photo).

Coolidge 3A Team to Beat Phx Christian Gets 2A Nod

In his six years at COOLIDGE, head mentor Carlo Hernandez has guided the Bears to 66 wins in 76 tries, including a 3A state title last year. Don't be surprised if Hernandez and crew captures another one in 2006.

An incredible 16 starters, paced by seniors Jesse Wheeler, TJ White and Ian Gillespie, return from last fall's 11-1 club. Wheeler, a 5-11, 175-pounder, is a two-way star at quarterback and defensive back. TJ White (5-10, 180) is an elusive running back and another major contributor in the secondary. Gillespie (5-11, 205) anchors the offensive line from his guard position and is a real stopper from his middle linebacker slot.

And that's not all! Senior WR/SS Damar White (6-2, 185), junior FB/DE Brad Jackson (6-0, 205), senior DE Shavar McKaney (6-2, 200), junior OT/NG Wyn Henderson (5-10, 210), junior WR/LB JoVante Waggoner (6-0, 190), senior WR/FS Jamal McKinney (6-2, 175) and senior OG/DT Joshua Thornton (6-2, 215) are other mainstays. The Bears are just plain good.

Led by all-state LB Jeff Alder, WICKENBURG looks formidable enough. Alder is a bit undersized at 5-11 and 180 pounds, but one opposing coach describes him as "the best linebacker I've seen in five years." He definitely uses his 4.7 speed to run to the football.

There are plenty of encouraging signs for second-year Wrangler Coach Norris Vaughn. His team finished 11-2 last year. Sixteen lettermen return. Seven starters on offense and seven regulars on defense are among those letterwinners. And the JV was undefeated in 2005.

Bruising Scott McKeever (6-1, 208), a standout at running back and linebacker, is another honors candidate, after capturing second-team all-state laurels last fall. Junior QB Drew Vaughn (5-11, 160) threw for over 1300 yards as a sophomore.

There's good size and experience in both lines, thanks to the availability of C Timmy Limon (5-9, 210, Sr.), OL/DT

The Coolidge Bears might be celebrating again this November. Coach Carlo Hernandez has a good group back in uniform.

Blake Crissman (6-2, 225, So.), OG Flint Miller (5-10, 185, Sr.), DT Matt Deacon (5-11, 227, Jr.) and DT Trey Byrd (5-11, 225, Sr.).

Others to watch include SE/S Tyler Murphy (5-11, 160, Sr.), WB/CB Ben Root (5-10, 172, Sr.) and K Derek Sievert (6-0, 185, Jr.). Hanging with Coolidge won't be easy, but Wickenburg will be in the hunt.

Last year was another solid one for PHOENIX CHRISTIAN. In fact, Jim Rattay's bunch finished 8-4, but this year's edition of Cougar football could be even better.

Rocky Gingg and Jeffery Edovard lead a remarkable group of 30 returning letter-winners. Gingg (6-0, 205) excels at both running back and linebacker, while Edovard (6-4, 235) specializes at tight end and defensive end.

Coach Jim Rattay also welcomes back linemen Nic Donohue (6-1, 230, Sr.), Noah Grant (6-0, 220, Sr.), Nic O'Neal (6-1, 225, Sr.), Drew Barnes (5-11, 200, Sr.), Josh Terry (6-2, 220, Jr.) and Ryan Mummert (6-1, 190, Jr.).

Toting the pigskin, in addition to Gingg, will be Jamey Westbrook (5-11, 180, Sr.), Charlie Moinet (5-8, 170, Sr.), Nic Fulin (5-9, 175, Sr.) and Junior Juvenal (5-10, 180, Jr.).

Sophomores Nate Singleton (5-11, 180) and Nate DeSantiago (5-10, 180) will battle for the starting quarterback spot. Besides Edovard, receivers David Bauguss (6-2, 185, Sr.), Francis Okot (6-4, 220, Sr.) and Ethan Hageness (6-1, 185, So.) are certainly capable.

There's a major rebuilding job underway at VALLEY CHRISTIAN. "We lost nine all-state players from our 2A State Championship team," says Head Coach Bill Morgan. "Only two starters and nine lettermen return. We will need some very young JV players from 2005 to grow up in a hurry, if we hope to contend."

Key returnees for the Trojans (12-0 a year ago) are OL/DE Isaac Remington (6-5, 245) and OL/OLB Mark Timpani (6-3, 200) – both senior honors candidates.

The quarterback post will be manned by either Garrett Brown (6-0, 180, Jr.) or Steven Sasso (6-2, 175, So.). A host of running back candidates are available, including Austin Foley (5-9, 145, Jr.), Tyler Gaab (5-9, 180, Sr.), Troy Roffi (6-1, 180, Jr.), Justin Lett (5-8, 150, Sr.) and Cory Cutshall (5-8, 145, Sr.). The receiving corps is also deep, led by Nick Longanecker (5-8, 135, Sr.), Dusty Shanaker (5-8, 150, Sr.), Mark Johnston (5-7, 140) and Dallas Moorehead (5-7, 140).

Assisting Remington and Timpani in the trenches will be the likes of Sam Moore (6-3, 230, Jr.), John Kredit (6-4, 220, Jr.), Davis Voss (5-9, 170, So.), Trevor Zane (6-0, 170, Sr.), Nick Dwyer (6-4, 220, Jr.), John Durst (5-8, 150), Brock Longanecker (5-9, 150), Brian Snider (5-10, 145) and Micah Makins (5-10, 150).

The Falcons of FOUNTAIN HILLS put together a very nice 2005 season, winning nine times in 12 outings and capturing the 3A West trophy. And the JV was tough, winning seven of nine contests.

So watch for Jim Fairfield's team to play well again in 2006. Headliners are OG/DE James Vancel (6-0, 205), OG/DT

Shea Ruppert (5-11, 225), OT/DT Bryan Bellanger (6-2, 200) and WR/DB Adam Fenimore (5-10, 175) – all seniors. Junior Jason Fairfield (6-3, 180) is a capable quarterback and could really be a weapon for the Falcons over the next two years.

Senior OJ Morris (5-11, 200) occupies both a running back and linebacker post for Fountain Hills. Also, keep an eye on TE/LB Jum Hubeck (5-11, 205, Jr.), OT/DT Will Lesure (6-1, 245, Sr.), WR/DE Ernsto Romo (6-4, 225, Sr.), RB/SS Kail Brinton (5-11, 190, Sr.), OL/LB Josh Brauzili (5-10, 205, Sr.) and WR/DB Josh Trulson (5-10, 175, Jr.).

SETON CATHOLIC, with Coach Pete Wahlheim at the helm, has a good group coming back. Fifteen lettermen, including eight starters, return from a 7-3 team. A 7-2 JV will help to fill in the gaps.

Seton's best player could be C/MLB Jon McDonald, a 6-0, 225-pound junior with 4.8 speed.

Wahlheim expects some competition at quarterback between senior Pat Miller (6-1, 210), junior Lucas McCarville (6-0, 160) and junior Nick Greisner (6-2, 165).

The Sentinels are also loaded at tight end – Matt Powlowski (6-1, 220, Sr.) and Sam Duhm (6-5, 185, Jr.) – and running back – Nick Samuels (5-10, 185, Sr.), Joe Koestner (5-10, 175, Sr.), Chris Baker (5-10, 175, Jr.), Keegan Park (6-0, 170, Sr.) and Corey Vaughn (5-10, 170, Jr.).

Coach Doug Meyer really has things going at ARIZONA LUTHERAN; the Coyotes advanced to the 2A finals last year, winding up with a nifty 12-2 seasonal mark.

"Other teams probably think we will struggle since we lost so many talented kids, but our kids are really dedicated in the weight room and they are determined to continue our tradition of success," says Meyer.

Thirteen lettermen are back in uniform, including four starters on offense and five regulars on defense. Skill position returnees are FB/LB Jeremiah Salzwedel (6-0, 185, Sr.), TE/DT Colin Schroeder (6-1, 235, Sr.), TE/LB John Akers (6-0, 205, Jr.), RB/LB Troy Merkle (5-10, 175, Sr.), RB/SS Jordan Burmeister (6-2, 170, Jr.), QB/FS James Mueller (5-11, 160, Jr.), RB/CB Josh Winterstein (5-7, 145, Jr.), RB/CB Mike Bosman (5-9, 165, Jr.), TE/DE Silas Mueller (6-1, 190, Sr.) and RB/CB Caleb Candler (5-10, 150, So.).

Linemen of note include OT/DT Brian Mundstock (6-2, 245, Jr.), C/DT Bradley Orłowski (6-0, 205, Sr.), OG/DE Ryan Gelner (5-11, 200, Jr.), OG/DE Billy Walters (5-10, 190, Jr.) and OG/DT Aaron Reeves (5-11, 195, Sr.).

Looks like another good year for Arizona Lutheran.

FLORENCE survived the move to 3A Football in good shape, winning five and dropping five on the year. Joining the 3A South with the likes of Coolidge, Safford and Seton can make for a long year, but the Gophers did just fine.

Coach Shawn Cluff has 13 starters back, including a very large tackle named Josh Stricklin. This 6-3, 270-pound senior should be invaluable on both sides of the football.

Juniors Mickey Tryon (6-2, 215) and Amado Gutierrez (5-9, 175) will also start once again in the offensive line. Taking snaps from center will be junior signal-caller Cash Clemens (5-8, 160). The ground crew features RB Larry Anderson (5-7, 155, Jr.), FB Devon Torrez (5-8, 185, Jr.), TB Justin Simon (6-0, 175, Jr.) and FB Chase Simon (5-9, 180, So.).

Clemens will be playing catch with junior receivers Andy Martinez (5-8, 150) and Alfred Woods (6-1, 175).

The trio of QB Franky Lynch (6-1, 158, Jr.), RB Ryan Castro (5-9, 157, Sr.) and WR Jake Speckhard (6-4, 168, Sr.) give ESTRELLA FOOTHILLS some offensive firepower. As a sophomore, Lynch threw for 632 yards and ran for 586 more. Castro sped for 860 rushing yards. And Speckhard averaged 27.4 yards per catch.

But Coach Mike Welch's best returning veteran is probably DL Aaron Heck, a 5-11, 262-pound senior. He had nine sacks and 20 tackles for loss last year, earning all-region and all-state accolades.

Among the remaining 24 lettermen back for the Wolves, 2-7 in 2005, are OL Terrance Nelson (6-3, 263, Sr.), DE Jeff Curry (6-0, 244, Jr.), LB Ben Preslar (5-10, 153, Sr.), RB/LB Jake Capps (5-9, 162, Jr.), DL Miguel Miller (6-0, 253, Jr.) and RB/DB David Ford (5-10, 148, Jr.).

The cupboard isn't bare at SCOTTS-DALE CHRISTIAN, where Coach Jeff Fox has 26 varsity veterans on hand from last year's 7-4 outfit. The competition is fierce, but Fox is particularly stocked with skill position kids.

The quickest appears to be RB/LB Ryan Tully, a 6-1, 195-pound junior with 4.6 speed. Other playmakers include WR/DB Jared Dubina (5-11, 175, Sr.), TE/DE Thomas Slager (6-2, 230, Sr.), RB/LB Nolan Magary (5-8, 175, Jr.), WR/DB Austin Jardine (6-0, 175, Sr.) and WR/DB Steven Boyce (6-1, 170, Sr.).

Setting the pace for the Eagles in both lines is senior Zach Glennie (6-1, 245). Fox begins his fourth year with SCA this fall; he's posted a 16-14 slate so far.

Coach Bob Miller at THE ORME SCHOOL has some optimism heading into the 2006 season. His guys went 6-3 last year and he gets seven letterwinners from that team back in uniform.

Seniors OG/DT Lashawn Bain (6-2, 255), QB/DB David McIntyre (6-1, 150), OG/DT Clark Golsey (5-11, 205) and OG/DT David Cappelli (5-8, 180) provide a nice foundation.

There's talent in the junior class too – led by FB/LB Yoon Kim (6-1, 180), FB/LB Michael Nedelman (5-9, 145) and FB/LB D'Artagnon Coney (5-8, 160).

Miller is anticipating that two transfers – brothers Mark (6-5, 265) and Andrew (6-4, 240) Henry – will join his gridiron crew this fall. Both will play tight end and on the defensive front.

SALT RIVER, under the leadership of Coach Ernie Salazar, is looking for a chance to advance deep into the 1A playoffs. Salazar's bunch ended matters with a 3-5 ledger last time out, but 10 of his top performers return and Salt River should be improved.

The coach expects his top players to be TE/DL Luke Saunder (6-0, 225, Jr.), RB/DB Mark Carter (5-10, 180, Sr.), FB/DE Jacob Schurt (5-8, 190, Sr.), C Juan Espinoza (5-9, 230, Sr.), QB/DB Brandon Strong (6-0, 180, So.) and OL Rosario Breonas (6-4, 315, Jr.). Last year's JV might provide some additional assistance; they finished 5-1 on the year.

Coach Jeff Gubernick's squad at WESTWIND ACADEMY endured a difficult year in 2005, losing all 10 games. But valuable experience was gained and 17 letterwinners are back to put some W's on the board.

It starts with QB Estevan Puig, a 6-1, 180-pound senior. His receivers are juniors Jose Hernandez (5-10, 150) and Joseph Shmele (6-2, 170). Most of the rushing attempts will go to senior Patrick Verville (6-2, 175). Top lineman figures to be senior Robbie Khaler (5-10, 170).
